| THE REPLY FILED 18 November 2004 FAILS TO PLACE THIS APPLICATION IN CONDITION FOR ALLOWANCE. Therefore, further action by the applicant is required to avoid abandonment of this application. A proper reply to a final rejection under 37 CFR 1.113 may only be either: (1) a timely filed amendment which places the application in condition for allowance; (2) a timely filed Notice of Appeal (with appeal fee); or (3) a timely filed Request for Continued Examination (RCE) in compliance with 37 CFR 1.114.                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                   |                                 |  |  |  |  |

| Extensions of time may be obtained under 37 CFR 1.136(a). The date on which the petition under 37 CFR 1.136(a) and the appropriate extension fee have been filed is the date for purposes of determining the period of extension and the corresponding amount of the fee. The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b). |                                   |                                 |  |  |  |  |
| 1. A Notice of Appeal was filed on 21 January 2005. Appellant's Brief must be filed within the period set forth in 37 CFR 1.192(a), or any extension thereof (37 CFR 1.191(d)), to avoid dismissal of the appeal.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                   |                                 |  |  |  |  |

The a) affidavit, b) exhibit, or c) request for reconsideration has been considered but does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                   |                                 |  |  |  |  |
| The affidavit or exhibit will NOT be considered because it is not directed SOLELY to issues which were newly raised by the Examiner in the final rejection.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                   |                                 |  |  |  |  |

Continuation Sheet (PTOL-303) 10/014,804

Continuation of 2. NOTE: The applicant has amended the independent claim 1, which would need further consideration and/or update search. In addition, applicant has argued that Kortesalmi fails to disclose, teach or suggest the claimed mobile system comprising Ktfirst means for checking whether the database contains a record which contains a mobile equipment identity corresponding to the mobile equipment identity transmitted by the mobile station, but whose mobile subscriber identity does not correspond to that transmitted by the mobile station, and second means responsive to the first means to produce a signal indicating that the mobile equipment identity is possibly a copied one," as recited in independent claim 7 and its dependent claim 8. Examiner still maintains the same rejection as in previous Final office action for claims 7-9. Kortesalmi does teach the claimed subject matter as set forth in independent claim 7. referring to Figure 7, At stage 72 an inquiry is sent to the home location register HLR by using the IMSI received. At stage 73 the MSC/VLR receives from the home location register a list of IMEI codes IMEI sub.HLR corresponding to the IMSI. At stage 74 a check is made to see if IIV is in use, and if not, at stage 75 the MS location updating is accepted. If IIV is in use, a check is made at stage 76 to see if the IMEI.sub.MS sent by the mobile station is included in the IMEI.sub.HLR list sent by the home location register HLR, i.e. if it corresponds to one of the IMEL sub. HLR identifiers sent by the home location register HLR. If this is the case, the MS location updating is accepted at stage 75. Otherwise the location updating is rejected at stage 77 and the use of the mobile station is prohibited (column 6, lines 8-19). Furthermore, as shown in Figure 8, if IIV is not in use, the MSC/VLR sends to the mobile station an acknowledgement 85 of accepted location updating. A positive acknowledgement 85 is also sent if the IMEI sub MS sent by the mobile station corresponds to one of the IMEI sub HLR identifiers sent by the home location register HLR. A negative acknowledgement 86 is sent if IIV is in use for said subscriber and the IMELsub.MS sent by the mobile station does not correspond to any of the IMELsub.HLR identifiers sent by the home location register HLR (column 6, lines 29-37). In the scope of Kortesalmi, the use of a copied SIM card refers to any technique of using fraudulently the SIM card data of another mobile subscriber (column 4, lines 33-35). Referring to Figures 6-8, the parts of a mobile communication network, a table 60 for storing the terminal identities (IMEI, columns 62 to 64) allowable to said subscriber identity (IMSI, column 61) is created in connection with the home location register HLR. An existing table, file or data base may alternatively be expanded to include the-data of table 60 (column 5, lines 28-35). Claims 7-9 are still rejected.
